COMPANY DATA

Matter and Energy, LLC is a tech solutions company specializing in data infrastructure, artificial intelligence, and intelligent IT spending management for government and mission-driven organizations. The company delivers AI-native platforms that integrate data processing, machine learning, and governance to optimize how agencies manage, scale, and secure their digital operations. As a forward-thinking tech company, our vision is to leverage over a decade of cross-industry expertise in digital transformation from the commercial world and apply it to the public sector.

Differentiator

- Our Technology Spend Intelligence solution, an integrated IT Financial Management (ITFM) platform, provides IT, Finance, and business leaders with a unified, actionable view of technology spend across services, departments, projects, and initiatives, surfacing cost reduction and optimization opportunities.
- We translate complex problem sets into working prototypes in weeks, not months—blending deep technical expertise with structured Solutioning-as-a-Service™ framework.
- Our Platform as a Service (PaaS) is a government-focused end-to-end solution integrating AI, data, and governance layers to enable efficient and adaptive model development, tuning, and deployment.
- Our products are built with a security-first approach, ensuring data protection, resilience, and compliance with regulatory standards.
